

Bullying Prevention For Students, Staff & Parents: From Awareness to Action

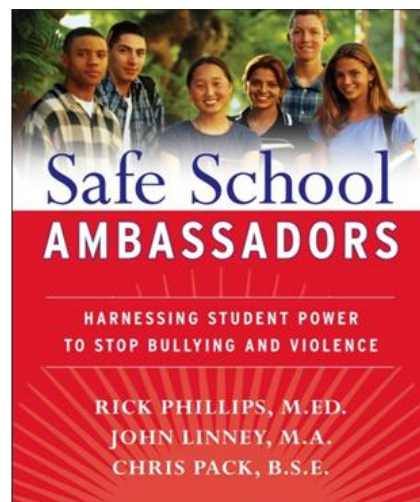

John Linney holds an M.A. in Communication and is Executive Director of Impact Coaching and Speaking, Inc and President of the International School Climate Institute. As a “climate control specialist,” he has provided services and training to over 400 educational institutions, community partnerships, and not for profit organizations throughout the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico, & Mexico.

John has been the keynote speaker at several conferences and has been a featured guest on numerous local and national television and radio programs in the U.S. and Mexico including C-SPAN, Univision, and National Public Radio. John has written several publications and is co-author of “Safe School Ambassadors: Harnessing youth power to stop bullying and violence,”

(Wiley / Jossey-Bass Publishing).

Bestselling author and noted expert
Deepak Chopra calls John’s book,
“...the only sane solution for ensuring security in our society.”

What others are saying:

“As a parent, I got practical information that I can use right now. I wish every parent in my district could’ve heard your presentation. I feel so energized! Thank you!” - M. Aranda, Middle School Parent, San Antonio, TX

“Participation, humor, well-organized, positive and energizing...I am leaving motivated to help my students perform better which is going to make my teaching job more rewarding.” - Assistant Principal, Bakersfield, CA

“I don’t usually like workshops and trainings but in my 21 years as an educator this ranks at the top. It is practical, necessary and applicable right away. John is engaging, entertaining, qualified and real. Thank you so much, I feel like I learned something new and useful.” – Middle School Teacher, Albuquerque, NM

Bullying Prevention For Students, Staff & Parents: From Awareness to Action

The workshops provide research, activities, and specific strategies to prevent and address mistreatment to help students and adults address mistreatment so teachers, students, and parents can thrive. We can reduce discipline issues and improve the climate in our schools and beyond if we know what to do about the problem. It is important for everyone to be more than a bystander. We want everyone to know how to be an Upstander. Participants will...

- ⊙ Learn a clear definition of bullying and warning signs to look for
- ⊙ Better notice and understand bullying, cyber-bullying and other forms of mistreatment
- ⊙ Understand the impact mistreatment can have on students, staff, parents, and schools.

But these workshops go beyond the basics and provide:

- ⊙ Effective communication skills to prevent and address mistreatment that adults and students may encounter at school or elsewhere
- ⊙ Proven intervention strategies so you can address bullying and mistreatment on the spot, when it happens, so we can help the targets, aggressors and bystanders
- ⊙ Practical tools and tips including handouts with ideas, strategies, and lessons for effective on the spot intervention, creating a positive classroom climate, addressing cyber bullying and more.
- ⊙ Useful resources to learn more how everyone can prevent mistreatment and improve school climate.

Please contact us for information about:
Student Assemblies and Training
Positive youth development & Character Counts
School Climate Improvement
Staff Development Bullying Prevention Intensives
Full Service Community Schools Support
Adolescent development / Behavioral Health
Parent workshops
Facilitation and Strategic Planning Support
Cyberbullying & Internet Safety

“Working together to make our schools places where everyone can feel safe, welcome, and supported.”